

13:00	Venue Open
13:30-13:55	Opening Address Yuji Kuroiwa (Governor, Kanagawa Prefecture) Ryosuke Tsuchiya (Chairperson, Kanagawa Prefectural Hospital Organization) Toshiaki Kobayashi (Director General, Center for Advancing Translational Sciences, Kanagawa Prefectural Hospital Organization)
13:55-15:05	Genetic and Genomic Medicine in Asia Keynote Lecture 1 Brian Hon-Yin Chung (The University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong) Application of NGS in Paediatric Patients in Hong Kong Keynote Lecture 2 Ni-Chung Lee (National Taiwan University Hospital , Taiwan) Diagnosis and Management in Neonatal-onset Organic Acidemia in Taiwan Keynote Lecture 3 Kenji Kurosawa (Kanagawa Children's Medical Center, Japan) Implementation of Next Generation Sequencing for Pediatric Clinic in Japan QA Session Chairman: Brian Hon-Yin Chung / Coordinator: Kenji Kurosawa Next-generation sequencing (NGS) has a basically broad impact on many facets of biological and clinical research. Genetic and genomic medicine will provide new challenges in pediatric practice. This session will highlight new insights uncovered by the recent research and therapeutic strategies in Asia.
15:20-16:30	Focus on Intact Survival for Preterm Infants Keynote Lecture 1 Dong-Woo Son (Gachon University , Korea) Byung Min Choi (College of Medicine Korea University, Korea) Arguments on the Management Strategy on Preterm Ductus Arteriosus in Korea Keynote Lecture 2 Hung-Yang Chang (MacKay Children's Hospital, Taiwan) Ming-Chou Chiang (Chang Gung Memorial Hospital, Taiwan) How to Improve Quality and Outcomes in the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit Keynote Lecture 3 Toshifumi Ikeda (Aomori Prefectural Central Hospital, Japan) Katsuaki Toyoshima (Kanagawa Children's Medical Center, Japan) Tailor-made Circulatory Management Based on Echocardiography in Preterm Infants at Kanagawa Mini Session Chairmen: Dong-Woo Son & Katsuaki Toyoshima Speakers intend to prevent complications of preterm infants and contribute to better development in our neonatal care. We hope to exchange opinions about neonatal care, to make this a great opportunity to think over about medical relationship.
16:45-17:55	To Find the Way to Cooperation in the Medical Management of Neonates with Complex CHD in Asia Keynote Lecture 1 Dicky Fakhri (National Cardiovascular Centre Harapan Kita, Indonesia) Indonesian Experiences Keynote Lecture 2 Sivakumar Sivalingam (Institut Jantung Negara, Malaysia) Malaysian Experiences Keynote Lecture 3 Dong-Man Seo (Kinkuk University Hospital, Korea) Korean Experiences Keynote Lecture 4 Toshihide Asou (Kanagawa Children's Medical Center, Japan) Japanese Experiences Mini Session Chairmen: Sivakumar Sivalingam & Toshihide Asou Speakers will talk focusing on two topics described below; Topic 1: Experiences of the interchange of personnel among our countries in Asia and the current progress in the surgical treatment of neonates with CHD in their own institute. Topic 2 : Suggestions about what we can cooperatively contribute to the care and treatment of neonates with CHD including perspectives of the further progress in the neonatal cardiac surgery in Asia.
17:55-18:10	Overall Remarks Seiyo Yasui (Vice Chairperson, Kanagawa Prefectural Hospital Organization)
18:10-18:20	Closing Address Sumimasa Yamashita (President, Kanagawa Children's Medical Center)
18:30	Reception